

Introduction

Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) advocate for human rights and environmental protection, build youth leadership, work to end violence against women and children, assist the poor and much more. Starting an NGO can be a powerful way to bring about change. For the existing organization, it is very challenging to ensure organizational sustainability and manage the resources in cost effective way. This workshop will serve as a forum for learning and deliberating the different aspects of NGO management. The topics to be covered in the workshop include:

- ❖ Concept and Function of NGOs
- ❖ Important Registration requisite for NGOs
- ❖ Schemes for NGOs under Government of India initiatives
- ❖ NGOs Skill, Starting an NGO Project Development
- ❖ Fund Raising, Types of Funding, Grant proposals
- ❖ Difference between Trust/Societies/Companies
- ❖ Monitoring and Evaluation
- ❖ Overview of Societies Registration Acts
- ❖ Networking and Advocacy
- ❖ Writing Grant Proposals

About The University

Chaudhary Bansi Lal University, Bhiwani is a state university established by the Government of Haryana under Act No. 25 of 2014. The University Grants Commission (UGC) is recognized under section 2(F). The University is a boon for the academically deprived region of Haryana, and holds great promise for the intellectual and academic development for the people of Bhiwani, a city located to the west of Delhi and south of Chandigarh at a distance of 125 km and 285 km respectively.

The university has been established as a teaching- cum- affiliating University to facilitate higher education in multi-disciplines with special emphasis on sports and physical education and to achieve excellence in these and connected fields. Currently, the University has PG Departments and Colleges, where the students learn different subjects in a multi-disciplinary and innovative teaching environment under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS).
